

Blessing Prodigal Sons and Daughters

Today _____ (insert name), on behalf of your Heavenly Father, and in His authority, I speak this blessing over your life.

I bless you as the beloved son/daughter of your Heavenly Father, and I call you forth into the place of purpose and destiny that He has prepared for you. I bless your pathway to that destination.

As of this day, may it sink deep into your spirit, heart, and soul that you are an individual of great value and worth. Your Heavenly Father's love for you makes you complete. You lack nothing!

I declare that you shall return from the land of the enemy. You shall not remain there, for there is hope for your future. May you be held in the palm of the hands of Almighty God, your heavenly Father. May He keep you from all evil, and may His face always be turned towards you.

I bless you with discernment, wisdom, and courage to find the way of escape that God has already prepared for you. I decree in the authority of Jesus' name that this is your time. The blood of Jesus has broken every snare. This is your time to walk out of every kind of bondage into the marvelous liberty of Christ. And it shall be as if you had never been ensnared.

With this blessing I declare that you shall not wander or die in the wilderness, but you will enter in and possess the Kingdom that God, your Heavenly Father, prepared for you before the foundation of the earth. You will fulfill the purpose for which you were born. I call you forth now as part of the generation that seeks after God and serves Him wholeheartedly. You will fulfill your potential, and you will do great exploits for the advancement of God's Kingdom.

With this blessing I put the name of the Lord upon you, as one belonging to God and empowered by Him. Know this day that you are blessed of the Lord with a blessing that cannot be reversed. As one whom God has blessed, you cannot be cursed. Amen.
